Mr. Vivek Kohli, Advocate General
Ms. Pollin Rai, Assistant Government Advocate.

ORDER

Rai, ACJ

Learned Advocate General submits that there is some space for consideration of additional quarters, however, presently the Report submitted by them be accepted and the construction of the two male barracks and one female barrack to house 65 inmates be allowed to continue. He assures this Court that the Government will take into consideration and include all requisite structures, such as medical units, rehabilitation centre and separate units for inmates suffering from contagious diseases by preparation of a Master Plan.

Let the Plan be submitted along with a detailed report.

IA No. 03 of 2019 does not require any discussion as steps that the State Government seeks to take is their prerogative and not dependent on the directions of this Court.

List on 06.12.2019.
