An application has been received from Member One Man Committee of Hon'ble Justice, D.M. Dharmadhikari, Former Judge of this Court.

This Court vide its final judgment dated 28.11.2018 had appointed One Man Committee of Justice D.M. Dharmadhikari for final solution to the problem of distributing the personnel between Telangana and Andhra Pradesh regarding the power Utilities.

A final report was submitted by One Man Committee allocating the employees subsequently after order of this Court dated 24.01.2020. A supplementary report has been submitted by One Man Committee on 11.03.2020 in which report 655 employees were to join in Andhra Pradesh and 584 employees on Telangana side. The application submits that there is some objection by Telangana Power Utilities with regard to permitting joining of 584 employees whereas Andhra Pradesh has communicated its willingness to permit joining of 655 employees of Telangana side.

One Man Committee in the above circumstances has submitted an application for permitting joining by passing an order of this Court with direction that service records of allocated employees to each side of the States may be made available online to the concerned power utility and, on the basis of such available records to the Employees Identity Number, the employees be paid monthly salary/pension last from until normal life in the country is restored and the allocation process by joining and posting of the employees is completed.

We find sufficient ground to issue interim direction as prayed for.

We further clarify that the interim protection is being issued today shall not prejudice any of the rights of Telangana Power Utilities to press their objections with regard to 584 employees which they have already represented to Justice D.M. Dharmadhikari. This order shall not preclude the objections to be considered in accordance with law by One Man Committee and this direction shall be subject to any final decision taken by One Man Committee by any specific report.

The application is allowed.
