ORDER

No one is present for the petitioner though the matter has been called out twice over.

Having examined the petition and the other material placed on record, we find no reason to keep this petition pending any further.

The frame of this petition and its contents make it clear that in the name of this contempt petition, the petitioner wants to take up entirely different causes, which remains impermissible. This is apart from the questionable frame of this petition and array of parties.

In any event, no case of willful or deliberate disobedience is made out.

This contempt petition, therefore, stands dismissed.

All pending applications stand disposed of.
