O R D E R

Since we have requested the High Court to decide the writ petition within six months and our order is clear, we are not inclined to entertain this contempt petition as well as Misc. Application No. 977/2020. However, liberty is granted to question the future fee fixation in accordance with law before the appropriate forum.

We request the High Court to decide the pending matter as early as possible, preferably within three months from today.

The Contempt Petition as well as Misc. Application are disposed of accordingly.
