IN

CIVIL APPEAL No. 14697/2015

Respondent(s)

O R D E R

Application for intervention is allowed.

The selection is stated to have been finally made and appointment letter issued on 16.12.2020 qua the Member(Law), It is however stated that the Member (Law) has yet not joined and he is a member of the State Commission.

In view of the facts which have already been recorded in the previous proceedings, we are of the view that it is in the interest of justice that the Member(Law) joins at the earliest and we are sure that the learned Attorney General will use his good office to facilitate his release from the present assignment and his joining the new assignment so that the judicial functioning can commence at the earliest.

Insofar as the matters which had been reserved are concerned, we permit the pronouncement of judgments in those matters. The other members can also join and carry on their administrative functions but the judicial functioning will be restored on the joining of the Member (Law).

In view thereof, nothing further survives for consideration. The contempt notice is thus discharged and the interdicts are vacated with the hope that such a situation does not arise in future.
