O R D E R

The matter arises out of an order passed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. where the petitioners prayed before the High Court that the FIR registered against them to be quashed and the High Court dismissed the petition.

We do not see any reason to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is dismissed.

We think it would suffice, if we observe that the trial Court may dispose of the matter without being influenced by any observations made in the impugned order.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
