The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there was an order of this Court dated 11.10.2017 for protection of the pay-scale at the time of absorption, in reference to all the employees who are either absorbed, and continuing on the day when the order was passed or retired from service,

But so far as the present petitioners are concerned, no orders have been passed by the respondents and despite representation being made in compliance of the order of this Court dated 24.01.2020, none of the respondents has responded to their representation and that is the reason, the present contempt
