O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties

According to the learned counsel for the petitioner(s), accused No.1 has already been released on bail. If the petitioner is claiming parity, it will be open to the petitioner(s) to take out a formal bail application before the Trial Court after surrendering before that Court, which can be considered by the concerned Court on its own merits and in accordance with law.

We dispose of these petitions with liberty to the petitioner(s) to appear before the Trial Court within three weeks from today and apply for grant of regular bail, including on the ground of parity, if so advised. That application be considered on its own merits and in accordance with law. Till then, no coercive steps be taken against the petitioner(s) but the petitioner(s) shall make himself available before the Investigating Officer as and when required in connection with the investigation of the subject case. If 48 hours advance notice is given to the local public prosecutor before moving the bail application, the concerned Court may decide the bail application preferably on the same day on its own merits.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
