O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and perusing the material available on record, we see no reason to interfere with the impugned order passed by the High Court dismissing the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

As prayed, two weeks' time from today is granted to the petitioner to surrender before the concerned Trial Court and upon surrender, if he files an application for regular bail, the said Court is directed to deal with and decide the said application expeditiously on its own merits and in accordance with law.

We make it clear that the petitioner shall not be arrested for a period of two weeks from today.

Consequent upon the dismissal of the Special Leave Petition, pending applications filed in the matter also stand disposed of.
