O R D E R

Delay of 24 days in preferring the review petition is condoned.

The issue raised in the High Court was whether the counsel who had made certain statement was within his competence.
After going through the facts, particularly that son of one of the parties was present in the court when the statement was made by the counsel, the High Court had refused to interfere in the matter and dismissed the appeal. The view so taken by the High Court was affirmed by this Court while dismissing the special leave petition.

We have gone through the grounds raised in the review petition and do not find any error apparent on record calling for interference in our review jurisdiction. This review petition is, therefore, dismissed.
