O R D E R

We find no ground to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is accordingly dismissed.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner has been working under the Panchayat Karmi Yojana for the last 12 years and the beneficiary of the impugned order was an Anganwadi worker.

We, thus, deem it appropriate to direct the State of Madhya Pradesh to look into the aforesaid aspect to see if the petitioner can continue to be accommodated in the Panchayat Karmi Yojana or in view of the shifting of respondent No.4 there in the Anganwadi Scheme to help her employment. A decision on this aspect be taken within a maximum period of two months from the date of receipt of the order.

Pending application shall also stand disposed of.
