UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Except the fact that the petitioners have not been granted an opportunity to take recourse to the disciplinary proceedings in accordance with law, we do not find any faulty factor in the impugned judgment.

Accordingly, this special leave petition is dismissed without prejudice to the liberty available to the petitioners to take recourse to the disciplinary proceedings against the delinquent, in accordance with law.

Needless to say that such proceedings will be dealt with in their own merits.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
