O R D E R

Delay condoned.

We are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order under Article 136 of the Constitution of India. The special leave petitions are dismissed.

Insofar as the grievance made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the dues admissible to the petitioner have not been paid, that is an aspect the petitioner may address to the respondents and we are sure, if it is so, the needful will be done expeditiously.

Pending application shall also stand disposed of.
