O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

Delay condoned.

We do not find any ground to interfere with the impugned order. However, since it is stated that the petitioner is suffering from mental unsoundness, the State Government may look into the matter and if necessary, take appropriate steps under Section 30 of the Prisoners' Act, 1900. It will be open to the State Government to deport him, if he is a foreign national and such deportation is permissible under law.

The special leave petition is, accordingly,
disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
