

The petitioners are aggrieved by the order passed by the High Court whereby the application for bail of the petitioners has been rejected.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

It is contended by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the three main witnesses, including the mother of the deceased, have been examined, and they have categorically stated that they have no knowledge that the crime was committed by the petitioners.

Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the matter and after considering the facts and circumstances of the case, we are of the opinion that it is a fit case for grant of bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, we dispose of both the matters with a direction that the petitioners may be enlarged on bail on such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the trial court.

Pending interlocutory application, if any, stands disposed of.
