O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and carefully perusing the material placed on record, we see no reason to interfere with the impugned order passed by the High Court whereby the High Court dismissed the application preferred by the petitioner seeking suspension of sentence and interim bail in pending criminal appeal.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

However, liberty is granted to the petitioner to move an application before the High Court for early disposal of the appeal pending adjudication before it.

If such an application is filed by the petitioner, we request the High Court to consider and dispose of the same on its own merit and in accordance with law expeditiously.

Consequent upon dismissal of the special leave petition, pending interlocutory applications also stand disposed of.
