W.P. (C) No. 644/2017

List in the first week of January, 2018.

IN ALL OTHER MATTERS

It is stated by Mr. Tara Chandra Sharma, learned counsel appearing for the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE), that the Board and the Principal has decided that the same question papers will be set for all the examinees, for all the future examinations to be held in 2018 and onwards, and the question papers shall be in English, Hindi and other vernacular languages. Statement is placed on record. It is ordered accordingly that all the examinations in future be held by the CBSE, be held on the basis of the similar questions papers for all the examinees, and the question papers shall be in English, Hindi and other vernacular languages. Accordingly, the special leave petitions stand disposed of.

Pending application, if any shall stand disposed of.
