UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It is informed by the learned counsel appearing for the parties that after completing the investigation in this case, charge sheet has also been filed. Considering the same, there is no need for us to interfere with the impugned order passed by the High Court.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner states that in the impugned order the High Court has made certain observations, which may adversely affect the petitioner in the trial.

As already held by the High Court, we make it clear that the observations in the impugned order shall have no impact on the merits of the case. The trial Court shall deal with the matter on its own merits, without being influenced by any of the observations made by the High Court.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
