O R D E R

Having heard Mr. Santhosh Paul, learned Senior Advocate for the petitioner for sometime, we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

However, since payment is not made in time, as the interest element would escalate, the Government is directed to pay the sum as awarded within a period of eight weeks from today. If so paid, the interest element will remain at the rate of 9%.

Pending application stands disposed of.
