UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners and having perused the material placed on record, we find no reason to consider interference in the order impugned.

So far as the aspect relating to any recovery proceedings against the college is concerned, suffice it to observe that only after making payment to the respondent No. 1, the petitioner-State may take up the requisite proceedings, but strictly in accordance with law and all the contentions available to college shall, obviously, remain open.

The special leave petition stands dismissed subject to the observations foregoing.
