O R D E R

It is brought to the notice of the Court that the petitioners have already undergone more than 14 years actual sentence. If it is so, it is open for the petitioners to file an application seeking remission as per the remission rules of the State. If such an application is made, the same shall be considered on its own merits in accordance with law at an early date. It is made clear that we are not expressing any opinion on the question of remission since we do not find any ground to interfere on merits.

With these observations, the Special Leave Petition stands dismissed.
