Upon hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

3. The transfer petition is accordingly dismissed.
4. As a sequel to the above, pending interlocutory applications also stand disposed of.
5. Learned counsel for the petitioner, in spite of the order passed by this Court, states that there is a possibility of an amicable settlement and, as such, the Court before whom proceedings under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 are pending at Surat, be directed to relegate the parties to mediation before taking up the matter for disposal on merits. We find substance in the contention advanced at the hands of the learned counsel for the petitioner.

6. In view of the above, in case the petitioner appears before the Family Court at Surat (Gujarat), and makes a request for settlement by way of mediation, the concerned Court shall relegate the parties to the Mediation Centre, attached to the District Court, and will proceed with the matter, only after the receipt of the report from the Mediation Centre.
