UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere in order of grant of bail passed by the High Court. However, with respect of execution of the sale deed, this Court has recorded in the order that "complainant is ready and willing to execute the sale deed of the entire land in agreement. The learned counsel for the petitioner accepts the said proposal" is set aside. As making of such statement is disputed and it was not for the High Court to go into such question while deciding bail application.

It was also submitted that there was no compromise between the parties. Be that as it may, the investigating Court not to be influenced by the observations made, while deciding the bail application.

The special leave petitions stand disposed of, accordingly.
