UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and carefully perusing the material available on record, we see no reason to interfere with the impugned order passed by the High Court dismissing the anticipatory bail application of the petitioner.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

During the course of hearing, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that his client is 70 years old, has undergone surgery and is bed-ridden and unable to move.

In view of the above, we grant four weeks' time from today to the petitioner to surrender before the concerned Trial Court and apply for regular bail. Upon surrender, if the petitioner files an application for regular bail, the said Court is directed to dispose of the same expeditiously on its own merits and in accordance with law.

We make it clear that for a period of four weeks from today, the petitioner shall not be arrested.

Pending applications filed in the matter also stands disposed of.
