O R D E R

Delay condoned.

Learned counsel for the appellants submits that initially limited notice was issued as a result of which the written statement filed by the appellants did not deal with all the issues and since the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission has now expanded the scope of the limited notice, he be given opportunity to file an amended written statement.

We give opportunity to the appellants to make appropriate prayer before the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission which may be considered in accordance with law.

The appeal is, accordingly, disposed of.
