UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned AAG for the petitioner as also learned senior counsel for the respondents and having perused

the impugned judgment passed by the High Court, we see no reason to interfere with the impugned judgment.

Learned AAG for the petitioner submits that certain issues in WP(C) No. 643 of 2015 being considered by another Bench of this Court may become relevant. Needless to mention that if the same become relevant in any proceeding, the said judgment will be looked into therein.

However, in the meantime, the order passed by the High Court in the instant case shall be implemented by giving effect to the recommendation which was made by the Chief Justice of the High Court.

With the above observations, the special leave petition stands disposed of.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
