O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Special Leave Petition was dismissed in default for want of curing of defects on 5th September, 2017. It is averred that the learned Advocate on Record, through whom the Special Leave Petition was filed, unfortunately passed away and the petitioner was not aware of this fact. He came to know later on and subsequently the defects have been cured by engaging a new Advocate on Record. There is, however, delay of 985 days. The delay is condoned and the Special Leave Petition is restored to its original number subject to payment of cost of Rs. 10,000/- to be deposited with the Supreme Court Mediation Centre. The cost amount shall be deposited within four weeks.

SLP shall be listed thereafter only.

Miscellaneous application is disposed of accordingly.
