

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF INDIA

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

Civil Appeal No(s). 3387 OF 2020

SHASHI MALHOTRA

Appellant(s)

VERSUS

ASHOK KUMAR

Respondent(s)

O R D E R

The complaint preferred by the present appellant was dismissed on the ground of delay by the National Commission.

Mr. Madhav Khurana, learned Advocate appearing for the appellant submitted that the period of limitation got extended because of certain developments including communications sent by the appellant.

Our attention was invited to some such communications. To a pointed query by the Court whether these communications acknowledge the liability, Mr. Khurana could not dispute the position. Consequently, the conclusion drawn by the National Commission that the action initiated by the appellant was barred by time, is quite correct.

This statutory appeal is, therefore, dismissed.

Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed of.
