ORDER

The present petition has been filed under Article 32 of the Constitution of India by which writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the enquiry emanating from letter dated 14.08.2019 and letter dated 14.08.2020 against petitioner No.2 and other ancillary relief have been prayed for.

As petitioner No.2 had already attained the age of superannuation, in the proceedings on the previous two dates, the stand of the State Government was sought for. Upon instructions dated 06.09.2024 from Home Department, State of Chhattisgarh, learned Additional Advocate General submits that the State Government has decided not to take any action in the said matter.

The instructions received by the Additional Advocate General are placed on record of this case.

In view of decision taken by the Home Department not to proceed against the petitioner No.2, this writ petition has now been rendered infructuous.

Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of as infructuous.
