O R D E R

Delay is condoned as the same is on account of the review filed by the petitioner.

We are not inclined to interfere with the concurrent findings of the three Courts below though we may not agree with the observation that the first appellate Court is the final Court of law in a sense because the first appellate Court is the final Court on fact while the second appellate Court is the final Court on law.

The Special Leave Petitions are dismissed with the aforesaid observations.
