Applications for exemption from filing c/c of the impugned judgment and affidavit are allowed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner and the deceased had a love marriage and even obtained protection at that stage. A girl child was born who has spinal problems which will require continuous treatment. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it is a case of death by suicide, the deceased having hanged herself. The case made out on a complaint of the mother of the girl is on dowry demand.

Learned counsel for the petitioner admits that the petitioner has availed of interim bail but submits that the original application was for regular bail but since the Court was not inclined, that was converted into interim bail, specially in view of the medical condition of his daughter. The petitioner seeks regular bail.

Learned counsel has also drawn our attention to page 46 to contend that the case is not proceeding after filing of the charge sheet.
