UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

The appeal is still pending before the Division Bench and it appears that at the preliminary hearing, the contours of the disputes have been set out only to facilitate the respondents to respond to the same. This does not take away, in any manner, right of the petitioner to contend that such issues need not be decided in the appeal.

As an abundant caution, we may state that any observations made in the impugned order naturally would not colour the final finding in the appeal.

The special leave petition is disposed of.

Pending applications stand disposed of.
