O R D E R

service. The petitioners should carry out that direction.

Insofar as the directions of the High Court to re-visit the whole issue of sanction of posts etc. and re-formulation of policy are concerned, there appears some merits in the submission that the High Court should not have interfered in policy matters.

Issue notice on the special leave petition in that respect as well as on the application for condonation of delay.

The direction contained in paragraph 22 of the impugned order shall remain stayed until further orders.
