Prima facie the dispute appears to be between the two sons where the father is on one side and the mother on the other. The petition is preferred by the mother and his son against concurring interlocutory orders. We are of the view that it is a fit case where professional mediation should be resorted to.

Learned senior counsel for the petitioners are willing for it but learned senior counsel for the respondents would like to obtain instructions.

List on 25th October, 2021.
