O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

We are not inclined to interfere with the interlocutory order passed by the High Court. The Special Leave Petition is dismissed with the observation that the observation in "para 2" of the impugned order shall not prejudice the rights of the parties, which reads as follows:

"Perused the judgment of the court below. The grounds on which the divorce has been granted are very thin. Although he alleges cruelty but no real case of cruelty has been made out against him by the wife. It seems that the husband requires some counselling."

Pending applications stand disposed of.
