O R D E R

Heard learned senior counsel for the petitioner and the State.

The petitioner has come up against an order of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Mainpuri, Uttar Pradesh taking cognizance of offences on the basis of a complaint made under Section 156(3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 and subsequent issue of summons. The offence alleged against him relates to death of his wife. The complainant is the mother of the deceased.

Main case of the petitioner is that the petitioner's wife had died at the time of child birth because of excessive bleeding. There are allegations also of physical violence (beating up of the deceased lady) against him. The petitioner's case is that there is no material to show his involvement in the death of his wife.

We, however, do not think the High Court had committed any error in not quashing the proceeding at the threshold stage.

With these observations, the present petition is dismissed, along with pending application(s), if any.
