O R D E R

Permission to file special leave petition(s) is granted.

It is urged by the petitioner-complainant that the order impugned in these petitions is likely to be used in persuading the Court to grant bail in other offences pending against the concerned respondent accused.

We make it clear that each application for bail must be considered on its own merits independently and not because of impugned judgment, including on the ground of parity.

The special leave petitions are disposed of accordingly.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
