In these special leave petitions, the assail is to the order dated 10.08.2017 passed by the Madras High Court. We need not advert to the many aspects that have been noted by the learned Single Judge. Suffice it to say, the learned Single Judge has passed an ad-interim order, as is reflectible from paragraph 12 of the order, and posted the matter on 04.09.2017.

This Court on 14.08.2017 had stayed the order passed by the learned Single Judge.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, it is thought appropriate to issue the following directions:

High Court of Madras;

(ii) The High Court is requested to dispose of these writ petitions within two months;

(iii) All the issues raised in these writ petitions, including the issue of territorial jurisdiction, are kept open and shall be addressed to by the High Court;

(iv) If any application for travelling abroad is filed before the High Court, the same shall be appositely addressed;

(v) In view of direction No.(iv), our interim order shall continue till the matter is finally disposed of.

Needless to emphasise, we have not expressed any opinion on any of the aspects of the case.

The special leave petitions along with all interlocutory applications stand disposed of accordingly.
