For Respondent(s)

UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner we are of the opinion that appropriate remedy would be to file review petition before the High Court and raise therein all the issues urged before us including placing reliance on the Regulation 29 of the UCO Bank (Employees) Pension Regulations 1995 which according to learned counsel has bearing. Be that as it may, we hereby grant liberty to the petitioner to file the review petition
within four weeks from today.

On such review being filed, the Division Bench would dispose of the review petition in accordance with law.

We also reserve liberty to the petitioner to approach this Court questioning the legality and correctness of the order impugned herein, if the occasion so arises.

Needless to say the petitioner shall always be at liberty to ask for any interim relief in the facts of the case before the High Court.

The special leave petition stands disposed of accordingly.
