UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the parties, we are of the opinion that no interference is called for.

The Labour Court-needless to add, shall be bound by the directions of the Single Judge to consider and decide the merits of the application under Section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as well as the reference made to it on their own merits, as expeditiously as possible and preferably within six months, uninfluenced by the observations of the High Court.

The special leave petition is disposed of subject to the above observations.

Pending applications are also stand disposed of.
