O R D E R

Learned counsel for the parties agree that since the final decision of the Tribunal has been pronounced, the aggrieved party may be permitted to approach the appropriate High Court for redressal of their grievances. Ordered accordingly.

We are conscious of the fact that this dispute has had a chequered history and being an election dispute, the High Court will make every endeavour for an early decision to resolve the dispute, if any party approaches it.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
