Applications for exemption from filing impugned judgment and official translation are allowed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that there is no doubt about the caste certificate though she had applied for the caste certificate after the cut-off date for the application. The reason for the same is stated to be that there was apparently a bar for issuance of caste certificate at a relevant stage of time. He further submits that the provisions cannot be construed in a narrow sense as the petitioner had filed the caste certificate of her father and that being the position, the natural consequence would be that she would be belonging to the same caste.

Issue notice returnable in six weeks.
