O R D E R

These petitions are filed as against the interim order passed by the High Court in contempt proceedings.

We do not find any ground to interfere at this stage, inasmuch as it is open for the petitioner to file his counter, as directed by the High Court, within three weeks from today, before the High Court.

It is needless to observe that the High Court will consider the matter on merits and in accordance with law.

Since the petitioner is not prejudiced in any manner, no interference is called for, the special leave petitions are dismissed with the said observations.
