Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

If the petitioner has any grievance about the correctness of the decision taken by the competent authority, he must resort to appropriate remedy. In absence of any direction, express or implied, it cannot be a matter for initiating contempt action.

The contempt petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to pursue such other remedy, as may be permissible in law.

All contentions available to the petitioner are left open.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
