Issue notice which is accepted by the respondent.

On hearing learned counsel for parties, we are not inclined to open a pandora's box once again and are clear that we have remitted on the issue of the valuation report. However, the consequences of the same would be that the applicants(s) before us would naturally have a right to agitate the issue of interest and costs which is a sequitur arising from the delay in the finalization of the amount payable to the respondent(s).

The application accordingly stands disposed of with the aforesaid clarification.
