O R D E R

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

It has been submitted that possession has been handed over on 20.12.2019. Mr. V. K. Shukla, learned senior counsel appearing for the respondent in this contempt petition submits that there are other proceedings pending in the civil Court in which orders were passed which have not been disclosed. Be that as it may, possession has been handed over in view of the undertaking which was given pursuance to the order of this Court dated 23.08.2018. Undertaking having been complied with, we see no reason to continue this contempt proceedings.

The contempt proceedings are closed.

We make it clear that closer of the contempt proceedings shall have no effect on any other civil proceedings which are pending which may be decided in accordance with law.
