O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel for the parties.

Leave granted.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, it is just and proper that interest at the rate of 9% p.a. on the awarded amount be paid to the appellant(s) from the date of application till the date of payment.

If any amount has been paid towards interest, the same may be adjusted.

The payment may be made within a period of three months from today.

The appeals are disposed of in the above terms.
