UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere in this special leave petition.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that certain factual aspects to assail the revaluation remained to be stated in the writ petition and if given an opportunity the petitioner would be able to demonstrate that the Revaluation

Committee committed palpable error and did not adhere to the Marking Scheme enunciated by the competent authority. He, therefore, prays for withdrawal of this special leave petition with liberty to prefer a Review Petition before the High Court.

The special leave petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty as prayed.

The petitioner is free to take recourse to remedy of review, if so advised.

We are not expressing any opinion either way on the merits of the said proceedings.
