O R D E R

The Court is convened through Video Conferencing.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and carefully perusing the material placed on record, we see no reason to interfere with the impugned order passed by the High Court whereby the High Court granted anticipatory bail to respondent No.2 herein.

However, taking into consideration the totality of facts and circumstances of the present case, we direct that in case respondent No.2 violates any of the condition imposed by the High Court or does not cooperate with the trial or attempts to tamper with the evidence or influence the witnesses, respondent No.1 - State would be at liberty to move an application before the High Court seeking cancellation of anticipatory bail granted to him.

With the aforesaid observation, the special leave petitions stand disposed of.

As a sequel to the above, pending interlocutory applications also stand disposed of.
