UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, we find that the relief, as prayed for, does not come within the domain of the Courts, as rightly observed by the High Court and it is only the State Government which has to look into the same.

The Special Leave Petition is, accordingly, dismissed.

However, it is open to the petitioners to make a representation to the State Government for their recognition, which shall be considered objectively, uninfluenced by the dismissal of this petition.

Pending interlocutory application(s), if any, is/are disposed of.
